Sorry, Mike. That question fell through the cracks. I'll do some investigating and will get back with you.

I would be good to know if these SLNs are already accessible to the public – perhaps on their Dept of Ag site?

Everyone –

This is what I propose to send to Rose. I deleted a couple of the less important columns. I also went back into OPPIN and verified most of the information. Please let me know what you think.

Thanks much,
Bo

I have been going back/forth on this one.
These are active registrations and so are public.
I would agree that you need to Q/A the information and tailor it for external use.

If folks have other thoughts, please chime in.

Should I share my table with Rose? If so, there should probably be an extra level of Q&A since I created it thinking it was for internal use.

I have copies of some states dicamba Section 24(c) registrations which address special local need situations in their states.

But I heard that there might be a table identifying the states various restrictions and requirements.

It is possible to have a copy of this table? I realize that it is likely a living document.

Thank you
